Perla Srour-Gandon
Directorate General for Research and Innovation

Perla Srour-Gandon is a Scientific Officer at the European Commission, in the Directorate General for Research and Innovation. She is responsible of several projects on Forward Looking activities (foresight), Energy issues (global changes, sustainable lifestyles) and on South Mediterranean and MENA (Middle East and North Africa) countries. Previously for last eight years, Perla Srour-Gandon was an analyst in geopolitics, specialising in oil and gas issues. She was an advisor for public and private entities that invest in the MENA region. From 2000 to 2002, she also worked at the Documentation Française, as a contributor to a research journal named Maghreb-Machrek. Perla Srour-Gandon holds a Magistère of International Relations from the University Panthéon-Sorbonne and a Diplôme d'Etudes Approfondies from the Institut National des Langues et Civilisations Orientales (Paris). She is also author of several papers on hydrocarbon issues and on energy efficiency on the MENA region in specialised reviews.
